OTHER INDIVIDUAL CHANGES

Alimony

Moving Expenses

Unwinding Roth IRA Conversion

Period for qualifying loan offset

THOMPSON GREENSPON | CPAS & ADVISORS | PARTNERING FOR SUCCESS

© 2018 Thompson Greenspon

- Alimony payments provided in instruments executed after 12/31/18 are no longer deductible by the payer or includible in income of the recipient; changes to existing decrees will require specific language referencing TCJA law to be treated under the new law. Depending on which side of alimony, you may want your divorced finalized sooner rather than later.
- Moving expense deduction suspended for tax years 2018-2025, except for active duty military due to permanent change in station
- The ability to re-characterize or unwind a Roth IRA conversion repealed after 10/15/18 – explain what this is
- The period for contributing a qualified plan loan offset to an eligible retirement plan is extended to the due date (including extensions) for filing the Federal income tax return for the year in which the plan loan offset occurs

LIKE-KIND EXCHANGES

THOMPSON GREENSPON | CPAS & ADVISORS | PARTNERING FOR SUCCESS

© 2018 Thompson Greenspon

For exchanges completed after 12/31/2017 only real property will qualify for tax-free exchange treatment

There is a transition rule that provides an exchange is subject to the pre-TCJA rules if a taxpayer disposes of the relinquished property in a forward exchange, or receives the replacement property in a reverse exchange before 1/1/2018

ESTATE TAX

Basic estate tax exclusion increased from
$5M to $10M

Basic exclusion projected to be
$11.2M for 2018
Gift planning opportunities

THOMPSON GREENSPON | CPAS & ADVISORS | PARTNERING FOR SUCCESS

© 2018 Thompson Greenspon

- The basic estate tax exclusion amount is increased from $5 million to $10 million for estates of decedents dying after 2017 and before 2026
- The basic exclusion is indexed for inflation (Projected to be $11.2 million for 2018) -
- Generation Skipping Tax exemption is equal to the basic exclusion
- The step-up in basis of assets to fair market value at the date of death is still applicable

<small>THOMPSON GREENSPON CPAS & ADVISORS PARTNERING FOR SUCCESS</small> <small>© 2018 Thompson Greenspon</small>

The new law provides that no deduction is allowed with respect to amounts incurred or paid after December 31, 2017 for:

- 1) An activity generally considered to be entertainment, amusement or recreation;
- 2) Membership dues with respect to any club organized for business, pleasure, recreation, or other social purposes; or
- 3) A facility or portion thereof used in connection with any of the above items

ALLOWABLE ENTERTAINMENT EXPENSES:

- Food and beverages furnished on the business premises of the taxpayer primarily for employees
- Expenses treated as compensation and included in an employee's W-2
- Expenses paid or incurred in performing services for another that are reimbursed
- Recreational expenses for employees
- Employee or stockholder business meetings
- Meetings of business leagues
- Items made available to the general public
- Entertainment sold to customers for adequate and full consideration

- Expenses includible in wages or persons who aren't employees
- BUSINESS MEALS
- Taxpayers may still generally deduct 50% of the food and beverage expenses associated with operating their trade or business (e.g., meals consumed by employees on work travel)
- EMPLOYEE DINING FACILITIES
- For amounts incurred and paid after 12/31/17 and until 12/31/25, the Act expands the 50% limitation to expenses of the employer associated with providing food and beverages to employees through a dining facility that meets the requirements for de minimis fringes and for the convenience of the employer
- Such amounts incurred and paid after 12/31/25 are nondeductible

DISALLOWANCE OF DEDUCTION FOR QUALIFIED TRANSPORTATION BENEFITS

- Still excluded from employee's income
- Applies to amounts incurred or paid after 12/31/17
- Disallows the deduction for the employer for expense associated with qualified fringe transportation.

© 2018 Thompson Greenspon

- The Act disallows deductions for expenses associated with: providing any qualified transportation fringe to employees of the taxpayer; except as necessary, for ensuring the safety of an employee; any expense incurred for providing transportation (or any payment or reimbursement) for commuting between the employee's residence and place of employment
- Does not change the employee's exclusion of the benefit from the employee's income
- Applies to amounts incurred or paid after December 31, 2017

SMALL BUSINESS ACCOUNTING METHOD REFORM AND SIMPLIFICATION

- The Act exempts certain taxpayers from the requirement to keep inventories
- Taxpayers with gross receipts less than $25 million not required to use Percentage of Completed Contract method

© 2018 Thompson Greenspon

Taxpayers/business owners may want to consider some type of tracking to ensure that products are priced correctly and to track profit margins.

For tax years beginning after December 31, 2017, taxpayers that meet the $25 million gross receipts test are not required to account for inventories, but rather may use a method of accounting for inventories that either:

- 1) Treats inventories as non-incidentals materials and supplies, or
 - 2) Conforms to the taxpayer's applicable financial statements (AFS); if there is not an AFS, then the method must conform to the taxpayer's books and records prepared in accordance with the taxpayer's accounting procedures
- Taxpayers are relieved from maintaining a formal cost of goods sold schedule in the tax return

UNIFORM CAPITALIZATION RULES (UNICAP)

- For tax years beginning after December 31, 2017, the Act expands the exception for small taxpayers from the uniform capitalization rules
- Under the provision, any producer or reseller that meets the $25 million gross receipts test is exempted from the application of UNICAP rules
- The Act retained the exemptions from the uniform capitalization rules that are not based on a taxpayer's gross receipts

NEW DEDUCTION FROM TAXABLE INCOME FOR BUSINESSES

- Deduction from taxable income
- Based on Qualified Business Income (QBI)
- Limitations apply
- Complex calculations

THOMPSON GREENSPON | CPAS & ADVISORS | PARTNERING FOR SUCCESS

© 2018 Thompson Greenspon

QBI :

- Defined as the ordinary income - less ordinary deductions - earned from a sole-proprietorship, S Corporation, or partnership
- Does not include any wages earned as an employee or guaranteed payments
- Does not include capital gains or losses, dividend income, or interest income
- Must be income effectively connected with the United States (and possibly Puerto Rico)

QUALIFIED BUSINESS INCOME DEDUCTION

- Available to all Taxpayers except C Corp
- Must be computed with respect to each separate business owned by a taxpayer
- Available for rental “trade or business” income
- QBI losses carry over and reduce QBI in succeeding years
- Income from Publicly Traded Partnerships and Real Estate Investment Trusts get the 20% deduction
- Apparently will “pass-through” allocable income, expenses, W-2 wages, and unadjusted basis in depreciable property through tiered entity structures

© 2018 Thompson Greenspon

- Generally 20% of a taxpayer’s qualified business income from a partnership, S Corporation, or sole proprietorship
- Is available to all taxpayers other than C Corporations
- Must be computed with respect to each separate business owned by a taxpayer
- Apparently will “pass-through” allocable income, expenses, W-2 wages, and unadjusted basis in depreciable property through tiered entity structures
- Is available for rental “trade or business” income
- Income from Publicly Traded Partnerships and Real Estate Investment Trusts get the 20% deduction
- QBI losses carry over and reduce QBI in succeeding years

- Limitations:

- Applies only to determine taxable income (does not impact Adjusted Gross Income or Self Employment income) and Alternative Minimum Tax Income
- Subject to limitations based on W-2 wages and value of depreciable assets used in the business
- Not available for certain professionals or service-related businesses (subject to the taxable income threshold)
- Limited to the lesser of the allowable combined business income deduction of the taxpayer, or 20% of the excess of taxable income over the sum of any net capital gain

© 2018 Thompson Greenspon

- Applies only to determine taxable income (does not impact Adjusted Gross Income or Self Employment income) and Alternative Minimum Tax Income
- Subject to limitations based on W-2 wages and value of depreciable assets used in the business once the taxpayer's taxable income exceeds $157,500, or $315,000 for a joint return. This limitation is phased in over the next $50,000 of income, or $100,000 for a joint return
- Not available for certain professionals or service-related businesses (subject to the taxable income threshold)
- Apparently will "pass-through" allocable income, expenses, W-2 wages, and unadjusted basis in depreciable property through tiered entity structures
- Is available for rental "trade or business" income
- Income from Publicly Traded Partnerships and Real Estate Investment Trusts get the 20% deduction
- Is limited to the lesser of the allowable combined business income deduction of the taxpayer, or 20% of the excess of taxable income over the sum of any net capital gain
- QBI losses carry over and reduce QBI in succeeding years

W-2 WAGE LIMITATIONS

- When taxable income exceeds the income threshold ($157,500/$315,000) the deduction is limited to the lesser of:
 - 20% of QBI, or
 - The greater of:
 - 50% of W-2 wages paid with respect to the business,
OR
 - 25% of W-2 wages, plus 2.5% of the unadjusted basis of all qualified tangible depreciable property within its useful life (the greater of 10 years or the applicable depreciable life)

THOMPSON GREENSPON | CPAS & ADVISORS | PARTNERING FOR SUCCESS

- A is a sole proprietor who sells rare books through an online business she operates from home, and she earned $200,000 from the business in 2018
- A works alone in the business and does not pay any employees
- A is married to B; B earned $150,000 from a W-2 job
- A and B report taxable income of $310,000 without respect to the QBI deduction

- A is entitled to a QBI deduction of $40,000 for 2018 ($$200,000 \times 20\%$)
- Because A and B's taxable income is below the limitation threshold, they are not subject to the W-2 limitations

- Assume the same facts in Example #1, except that B reports W-2 income from his employment of $300,000
- A and B's taxable income for 2018 is $460,000
- A deducts W-2 wages of $20,000 to an employee who assists her in her business
- A's QBI tentative QBI deduction is $40,000
- Because A and B's taxable income exceeds $415,000, the QBI deduction is subject to limitation ($$20,000 \times 50\% = $10,000$)
- A's allowable QBI deduction is $10,000

- The total benefit of the income limitation phase-in is $30,000 ($40,000 - $10,000)
- A and B's taxable income consumes 60% of the phase-in [$($375,000 - $315,000) / $100,000$]
- A's QBI deduction is reduced by $18,000, thus totaling $22,000 [$($40,000 - ($30,000 \times 60\%))$]

- C owns a shopping center
- C paid $1,500,000 for the shopping center. $1,000,000 of the purchase price is allocated to the building property
- C placed the building in service in 2005 and is depreciating it over 39 years
- C's QBI from her rental trade or business is $200,000, and her taxable income is $250,000
- C pays no wages in her rental trade or business
- C's tentative QBI deduction is $40,000
- The W-2 limitation on QBI is $25,000 [($0 wages x 25%) + ($1,000,000 unadjusted basis x 2.5%)]
- C's allowable QBI deduction is $25,000

(Note that if the property used in this trade or business was machinery depreciable over 5 years, C would not be entitled to any QBI deduction because 2018 is beyond the 10-year life allowable)

NET OPERATING LOSSES

- Net Operating Losses (NOL) limited to 80% of taxable income
- Cannot be carried back; carried forward indefinitely

LIMITATION ON LOSSES FOR TAXPAYERS OTHER THAN CORPORATIONS

New Fourth tier:

LIMITATION ON BUSINESS LOSSES FOR TAXPAYERS OTHER THAN CORPORATIONS

2017

Unlimited use of trade or business losses after the application of passive loss rules to offset other income.

2018

Amount that can offset other income is limited to $500,000 for married filing jointly ($250,000 for single filers)

- For taxable years beginning after 12/31/17 and before 1/1/26, excess business losses of a taxpayer, other than a Corporation, are not allowed for the taxable year
- Such losses are carried forward and treated as part of the taxpayer's NOL carryforward in subsequent taxable years for partnerships and S Corporations
- In the case of a partnership or S Corporation, the provision applies at the partner or shareholder level; The limitation rule applies at the partner or shareholder level
- Each partner's distributive share and each S Corporation shareholder's pro rata share of items of income, gain, deduction, or loss of the partnership or S Corporation are taken into account in applying the limitation under the provision for the taxable year of the partner or S Corporation shareholder

An excess business loss for the taxable year is the excess of aggregate deductions of the taxpayer attributable to trades or businesses of the taxpayer (determined without regard to the limitation of the provision), over the sum of aggregate gross income or gain for the tax year which is attributable to those trades or businesses, plus a threshold amount

The threshold amount for a taxable year is $250,000 ($500,000 for MFJ)

If husband and wife have separate businesses – limitation based on the aggregate activities

EXCESS BUSINESS LOSS EXAMPLES

Ex. 1 – T – single taxpayer

$200,000 gross bus. Income
$500,000 business deduct.
$300,000 tentative loss

Limitation: $250,000
$300,000 tentative loss
-$250,000 allowed loss
$ 50,000 excess loss

$50,000 will carry forward

Ex. 2 – T- married, files MFJ

$200,000 gross bus. Income
$500,000 business deduct.
$300,000 tentative loss

Limitation: $500,000
$300,000 tentative loss

$300,000 allowed loss
$0 carry forward

1. In 2018, T, a single taxpayer, has deductions of $500,000 from a business. T's gross income from the business is $200,000. T's excess business loss is $50,000 [$$500,000 - ($200,000 + $250,000)$]. The $50,000 excess business loss is treated as part of the taxpayer's NOL carryforward in later years.
2. Same facts as #1 above, except T is married and files a joint return. T does not have an excess business loss because the aggregate business deductions ($500,000) do not exceed the $200,000 of business income plus the $500,000 threshold for joint filers.

Ex. 3 T & S MFJ – T Income	Ex. 3 T & S MFJ – S Income	Combined

3. Same facts as #2, except that T's spouse (S) also has a business that has deductions of $500,000 and gross income of $200,000. S and T's excess business loss is $100,000 [$$1,000,000 - ($400,000 + $500,000)$].

EXCESS BUSINESS LOSS EXAMPLES

X – 50% partner; single

$500,000 Capital Contribution
$350,000 50% share of loss

Limitation: $250,000
$350,000 tentative loss
-$250,000 allowed loss
$100,000 excess loss

$100,000 will carry forward

Y – 50% partner - MFJ

$500,000 Capital Contribution
$350,000 50% share of loss

Limitation: $500,000
$350,000 tentative loss
$350,000 allowed loss

$0 will carry forward

4. In 2017, X and Y quit their jobs in order to start a business, as equal partners. X is single and invests $500,000 of capital, and so does Y, who is married. The 2018 partnership tax return reports a net loss of $700,000. X's and Y's allocable share of the partnership's loss is $350,000 each, which they report on Schedule E of their respective 2018 individual returns.

Since the excess loss limitation applies at the partner level, X has an excess business loss of $100,000 ($350,000 less the $250,000 threshold for single), and Y has no excess business loss because his allocable share of $350,000 is less than the $500,000 married threshold.

EXCESS BUSINESS LOSS EXAMPLES

X – 50% partner; single

$300,000 Wages from prior job
$500,000 Capital Contribution
$350,000 50% share of partnership loss

Limitation: $250,000
$350,000 tentative loss
-$250,000 allowed loss
$100,000 excess loss

$100,000 will still carry forward

5. Same facts as #4. In 2018, X received a salary of $300,000 before forming the partnership and had income from other sources of $50,000. Even though X has an excess business loss, X can use $250,000 (up to the threshold amount) of the losses from the partnership to offset X's other income. However, even though X has sufficient income in 2018 to offset the entire loss, X must treat the $100,000 excess business loss as an NOL carryforward. If the partnership is not profitable in 2018 and X has no other substantial sources of income, X must continue to carry forward the NOL.
